The Deputy Minister of Public Works and Infrastructure, Honourable Bernice Swarts delivered a keynote address at the Expanded Public Works Programme (EPWP) Summit which is underway at Steve Tshwete Local Municipality in Middelburg, Mpumalanga.

The two-day summit will take stock of what has been achieved by the Mpumalanga Provincial government since the start of the EPWP Phase 4 in 2019, as well as plan ahead for the Phase 5 of the programme.

"As we gather today to reflect on the road traversed in our quest to institutionalize the EPWP as tool for fundamental socio-economic change, we must do so inspired by Amilcar Cabral's wisdom. His wisdom must be placed at the heart of our endeavours for the reconceptualisation and redesigning efforts of the EPWP for the future," said Deputy Minister Swarts.
