17 November 2023 marked the first day of the South African Council for the Architectural Profession's (SACAP) 6th term as the council's board members were officially inaugurated at the SACAP offices in Sandton, Johannesburg.

SACAP's mission is to have an inclusive and transparent architectural profession recognized as a global leader in the built environment.

Director of Public Entities under the Department of Public Works and Infrastructure's Inter-Governmental Coordination branch Mpho Mashaba represented Minister Sihle Zikalala and the DPWI at large at the event. During his speech, Mr Mashaba encouraged the incoming board members to continue with the good work that has been done by the 5th term council and wished them well on their tenure over the next four years.

Following their inauguration, the board members, comprised of 9 council members; elected a new president and vice-president and they selected Charles Nduku and Letsabisa Shongwe respectively.

ADG ADV. RICHARD SIZANI URGES DPWI STAFF TO PRIORITISE PROFESSIONALISM

By Andile Xulu

DPWI Acting Director-General Advocate Richard Sizani encouraged and motivated colleagues to be united and work together at a "meet and greet session" with staff from the Pretoria Regional Office as well as from Head office.

The ADG stated that one of the most important values is Ubuntu which means humanity. He urged staff to serve people without fear or favour. Advocate Sizani said he was keen to see a Department that is professional; that uses the resources of government in the interest of all citizens without choosing the skin colour of the person or where they come from and a department that reflects all areas of the country.
