Public Works and Infrastructure Deputy Minister Bernice Swarts, together with Free State Public Works and Infrastructure MEC Dibolelo Mance and Maluti-a-Phofung local municipality Mayor Mamotseare Lakaje-Mosia held an imbizo in Kestell in the Free State.

The Imbizo is part of Deputy Minister Swarts' oversight project visits. Before the Imbizo, they first cleaned a local park which has been turned into an illegal dumping site. They then visited a pot-hole fixing project by the Community Works Programme (CWP).

The Deputy Minister also visited the Kestell Magistrate Court which is currently under construction. She addressed a number of concerns raised by subcontractors on site, promising to give updates on a regular basis.

Deputy Minister Swarts, MEC Mance and Local Mayor Lakaje-Mosia then addressed hundreds of community members who packed the community hall.
