DEPUTY MINISTER SWARTS EMPHASISES THE IMPORTANCE OF INCLUSION & JOB OPPORTUNITIES FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

By Hope Motitimi

The Council for the Built Environment (CBE) is hosting its inaugural conference on persons with disabilities today at Birchwood Hotel in Boksburg. The conference aims to "consolidate and accelerate rights of persons with disabilities" in the built environment.

Chairperson of the National Albinism Task Force, Mr Patrick Wadula shared insights on what Albinism is and the stigmas around it. Mr Wadula also urged people within the built environment to always consider all types of disabilities when constructing buildings.

Delivering her speech at the conference, Public Works and Infrastructure Deputy Minister Bernice Swarts emphasised on the importance of inclusion and job opportunities for people living with disabilities within the built environment. "Together, we can create a world where everyone belongs. When we embrace diversity and inclusion, we not only enrich our communities but also strengthen our societies" she said.
