Deputy Minister of the Department of Public Works and Infrastructure, Bernice Swarts, attended a celebration hosted by the Japanese Embassy in Pretoria, South Africa this week. The event honoured the current Japanese Prime Minister as well as its National Day.

Deputy Minister Swarts' presence highlights the continued collaboration and partnership between South Africa and Japan. "I was honoured to represent South Africa at this important celebration," stated Deputy Minister Swarts. "Japan is a valued partner and we look forward to deepening our ties in the years ahead."

The event featured traditional Japanese cultural performances and cuisine as it gave a glimpse into the rich heritage of Japan.
