“We call for the revoking of citizenship and revoking of residential rights of Guptas,” said Cronin. “We call for lifestyle audits for all ministers, all deputy ministers and for board members of state-owned companies.”

Cronin says the SACP would stand its ground when it meets with the ruling African National Congress top six – by expressing their disappointment at recent events, which include a cabinet reshuffle, followed by a downgrade to junk status by a rating agency.

Several hundred Capetonians who were present at the memorial said they would mobilise communities to participate in Friday's march to Parliament – as part of national protest action against the Zuma presidency.
