

These people are thieves. Wherever you go there's an outcry about unemployment and lack of skills development opportunities. The EPWP (Expanded Public Works Programme) is for the unemployed and is meant to empower them. These thieves do not deserve to work at the municipality and they must pay back all the money they stole from the government. - Mdu Nkosi, eThekweni Municipality IFP Exco member, after a report that permanent municipality employees had benefited from the Expanded Public Works Programme.
