Scores of mourners pay tribute to Loliwe

SCORES of mourners gathered at the Buffalo City Hall in East London to pay their last respects to ANC MP, unionist and former teacher Fezeka Loliwe.

Described by almost everyone who got up to speak as a hard worker, Loliwe died last week in a tragic accident on her way to King William's Town from Fort Beaufort.

Among those in attendance was Public Works Minister Thulas Nxesi, who served with Loliwe in the central command team of the South African Communist Party and in the national executive of the South African Democratic Teacher's Union.

He said she was a disciplined servant and great teacher. – Simthandile Ford
