

DJ Crooks birthday tour starts with a bang

Hosea Mothei

The annual DJ Crooks Birthday Tour continued at the Kofifi Launch in Protea North. Patrons were entertained by the music played by different DJs throughout the day, enjoying the September vibe through entertainment. Victor Letsholo, known as Crooks usually organises his birthday tour every September in different places around Soweto. The tour will end on October 1. Crooks said he has seen a pleasing crowd since the beginning of the tour and the patrons are always well behaved. "The public have enjoyed themselves in the places I have already played in and they keep dancing and enjoy their drinks," said Letsholo. One of the patrons who attended at Kofifi Zelda Mogapi said she came all the way from Mapetla to get entertained. "I am enjoying myself," she said. "I will be attending the tour until it ends." On September 10, the tour will be at Bafokeng Corner at Phiri. It will go on to KO in Mapetla on September 30 featuring various artists including Dino Bravo. Sbu Malowyer, Toyota, Lady P, Blankt, Mr Gee and Charleem. Entrance is free. According to Letsholo, he has been doing the tour annually and among his achievements include that he managed to the OZ pub in Moletsane, in 2004 until 2011, and joined the Department of Public Works in 2011 until now as a mentor and resident DJ. The DJ said he is planning a big event on World Aids Day.

Khona showing his dance moves.

Letsholo and Portia at the event.

Getting entertained at Kofifi.