

Thulas Nxesi

Nxesi is no silver bullet for jobs, say analysts

The prospects of newly appointed employment and labour minister Thulas Nxesi creating much-needed jobs are near impossible, analysts say.

They argue that Nxesi is being set up for failure if fundamental issues preventing employment are not dealt with. A former minister of public works and later of sports, Nxesi is the deputy national chair of the SA Communist Party. He also had a stint as the general secretary of the SA Democratic Teachers' Union. /Page 3
