

NC DEPARTMENT IGNORES ORDER TO PAY EMPLOYEES

GRADER MUST PAY SALARIES

ATTACHED: Two employees attached a R3.4 million grader (right) in lieu of their salaries after the Northern Cape Department of Roads and Public Works failed to pay them. The employees, Tshepo Mahadika and Tabiso Palweni (left), were dismissed after they were found guilty on charges of gross insubordination and incitement during a disciplinary hearing. The Bargaining Council eventually ruled that Mahadika and Palweni be reinstated to their position with no loss of benefits or remuneration.

Picture: Soraya Crowie
Report PAGE 2

