

Patricia de Lille

Ministers fail to pay subsidised rentals — De Lille

Cabinet ministers and their deputies, who each earn up to R2.4m a year and are tasked with driving the government's user-pay principle, are failing to keep up with relatively cheap rentals for their lavish ministerial homes. The ministers owe the state a combined R1.3m in outstanding rental payments for state-subsidised houses, according to public works minister Patricia de Lille. /Page 2