

Charlestown Housing Project finally underway

Despite initial challenges with the paucity of a constant water supply that was to come from neighbouring Mpumalanga in Volksrust, the Charlestown Housing Project is coming to fruition much to the delight of residents.

This comes after the KwaZulu-Natal Human Settlements

Department intervened by installing a borehole to have a water source in order for the project to continue.

Once again, this Greenfield Breaking New Ground Housing Project in Newcastle Municipality, Ward 1 on the border with the Mpumalanga Province, is happening under the watchful eye and exemplary hands of leadership uStanela uMeehlokazulu umfoka Mnqungebe.

“We are quickening the pace as exhorted by Human 3 and Public Works to realise the Freedom Charter clause that there shall be houses, security and comfort for all,” said MEC Jomo Sibiya.
