HARD WORK PAYS OFF

The City of Cape Town held its annual Expanded Public Works Programme (EPWP) Awards ceremony last week. Pictured is Subcouncil 21 manager and programme manager for vulnerable groups Lorraine Frost, with City manager Lungelo Mbandazayo (left) and Dr Luzuko Mdunyelwa, executive director: urban waste management. Frost accepted the prize for the best EPWP Social Sector Project for the Women Empowerment Project, as well as second prize in the same category for the Men Inspired Programme. The Women Empowerment Project was also runner-up in the Most Innovative Project category. The Men Inspired Programme won third prize in the same category.
