The following people have joined the MK party: Lucky Montana who destroyed Prasa, Brian Molefe who destroyed Eskom and Tom Moyane who destroyed Sars. All the thugs are joining the MK party. They are following their leader Jacob Zuma, the hardcore criminal.

How refreshing to hear Minister of Public Works and Infrastructure Dean Macpherson being interviewed recently. At long last there is a committed, keen and energetic person assuming a role in which he actually intends to serve all the citizens of South Africa. There is yet hope for a bright future – and that's a statement I never thought I'd be writing during the past few years.

I know not of anyone who promised life would always be fair, good, enjoyable and never be tough, miserable, sacrificial or unfair. EFF leader Julius Malema seems to offer something like that? What is woke and multi interchangeable gender trash about? What is the nonsense about entitlement about?

How wonderful to read in the weekend papers there is a new buffoon in the ANC leadership – the premier of the North West has told his subjects to 'make more babies'. While we cannot educate and care for the young ones we have. Viva ANC, viva.
Big red

The North West premier has told the people in the province to have more babies so that they can get a bigger slice of the budget. His people can't even feed themselves, now they must have more babies. I just cannot believe the ignorance.

What a load of nonsense. The ANC says tribalism is the reason for low turnout in elections. They have marginalised the minorities for 30 years. They have neglected the populace with their irrational policies. In a nutshell, they have destroyed everything that was good.

Banks wanting to close ATMs is a major inconvenience to most people, especially those who have to do cash deposits in another bank. They have to waste petrol and stand in long queues. There is also fraud in digital banking. Any other archaic ideas they will come up with?

Dirk Lotriet, you are so very much in my thoughts and I'm going to miss your columns. You are travelling a very hard road but you are not alone. Never give up and stay positive.

Akani Simbine, we are super proud of you. Bring back the medal in the relay.
