The hypocrisy

The Minister of Justice Ronald Lamola and the Minister of Public Works and Infrastructure Sihle Zikalala recently opened a new Magistrate's Court in Port Shepstone.

It took 10 long years to finally be completed and Lamola blamed the construction mafia for the delay as they kept demanding that a significant portion of the contract be given to them.

Lamola added that it is unacceptable that the government is held to ransom in such a manner.

What irony and hypocrisy. The government has been doing something not dissimilar to the people of South Africa for 30 years.

The government doesn't like competition and has clearly never heard of, "don't do unto others what you don't want done unto you".
