Mayor's mother laid to rest

Josephina Mashienyane Moimana, mother of Ephraim Mogale Local Municipality Mayor Given Moimana, was buried at Ga-Matlala Ramoshebo Village on Sunday.

Josephina passed away on August 25, aged 73, after battling a long illness.

She attended Mashung Primary School and later worked in Marble Hall from 1955 to 2022.

In 1976, she married Edward Puwara Moimana and was blessed with seven children. She is survived by her husband, four sons, two daughters, 24 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Josephina is the firstborn of the late Lefokeng and Monyamane Matlala.

Traditional leaders, Limpopo Premier Dr Phophi Ramathuba, Public Works, Roads and Infrastructure MEC Ernest Rachoene, Health MEC Dieketseng Mashego, Sport, Arts and Culture MEC Jerry Maseko, members of the National Assembly and Provincial Legislature, ANC Sekhukhune Regional Secretary Mathope Tala, Sekhukhune District Municipality Executive Mayor Minah Bahula, council speakers, chief whips, councillors and government officials joined mourners to pay their last respects.

Josephina was described as a loving mother and a humble member of society who believed in peace. She was a pillar of strength who positively impacted the lives of many people in her community, especially women.

Mayor Given Moimana and family members.
