Minister Zikalala addresses Master Builders South Africa Congress on Government's Response to Infrastructure Challenges

Public Works and Infrastructure Minister Sihle Zikalala, MP, will tomorrow, 8 September 2023, address the annual congress of the Master Builders South Africa at the Century City Conference Centre in Cape Town.

The Minister will deal with all the major and burning issues in the construction industry. These issues pertain to the reconstruction of the country after the destruction brought on by Covid19. The Minister will also deal with updates on catalytic infrastructure projects that the Department is embarking on, the role of DPWI in making the country a construction site, government action in reining in construction mafia that are disrupting the construction industry.

The briefing will also touch on key issues of mutual interest to the Department and Master Builders South Africa and the industry at large.

The media fraternity are kindly invited to attend this event, in particular, Minister Zikalala's delivery of his keynote address.
