MEDIA STATEMENT

Minister Zikalala avails Built Environment Sector Professionals to assist in the Johannesburg City Explosion

Minister for Public Works and Infrastructure has noted the destruction of infrastructure as a result of the Bree Street explosion in the City of Johannesburg. As the custodian of the built environment, the Minister has tasked the Council for the Built Environment, a DPWI entity, to mobilise the sector, professionals, engineers, geologists and other specialists to stand ready to support the initiatives led by the Gauteng Premier and City of Johannesburg leadership that are aimed at restoring normalcy, protecting the public and rebuilding of Infrastructure.
