MEDIA STATEMENT

Recent media reports on Mr Dumisa Dlamini

Following the recent media enquiries and subsequent newscasts on the matter surrounding the Deputy-Director General for RKTP, Mr Dumisa Dlamini, the Department wants to state the following:

The National Department of Public Works confirms that it is currently attending to the directive from the Department of Home Affairs that measures be taken against the DDG: RKTP, Mr Dumisa Dlamini, following revelations that his domicile status in the country was illegally obtained.

In compliance, the Department of Public Works was consulting both the Public Service Regulations as well as Labour Relations legislation to give effect to the Home Affairs recommendation. The official was made aware of the Home Affairs revelations and has been on annual leave since last week.

The Department wants to assure all employees that the matter is being attended to with all the sensitivity it deserves.
